

ANS Correspondence

Stevens, Harry E.
(Merchantville, NJ)

1923

original front tab of folder

Stevens, Harry E

P. O. Box 81,

Merchantville, N. J. March 21, 1923

The American Numismatic Society,
New York, N. Y.

Mr. Secretary:

Will you be so good as to send me
information where I can get a book on French Orders and Decorations.

Thanking you in advance.

Yours truly,

Harry E. Stevens.

March 23rd, 1923

Mr. Harry E. Stevens
P.O. Box 81
Merchantville, N.J.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your favour of March 21st,
we should be glad to furnish you with our monograph "French Orders and Decorations" by Harrold
E. Gillingham, at a cost of Two Dollars.

Very truly yours,

Publication Department

P.O.Box 81,

Merchantville, New Jersey,

June 12, 1923.

Mr. V.E.Earle, Publication Dept.,

The American Numismatic Society,

New York, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing herewith a money order for two dollars for a copy of "FRENCH ORDERS AND DECORATIONS" by Harrold E.Gillingham to be sent to my address.

In sending book by mail, please take care to protect the corners of same. Please send soon, and greatly oblige.

Yours very truly,

Harry E. Stevens.

June 13th, 1923

Harry E. Stevens, Esq.
P.O.Box 81
Merchantville, N.J.

Dear Sir:

Your favour of June 12th, together with Money Order for Two Dollars just received. We have today sent forward to you under separate cover, one copy of "French Orders and Decorations" as per request, and trust same reaches you promptly.

Thanking you for your order, I am

Very truly yours,

Publication Department